FROM OUR MAYOR

DEAR CLEVELAND FAMILIES,

I am pleased to present this newly redesigned School Quality Guide in collaboration with the Cleveland Transformation Alliance. I hope that you find its contents useful and easy to navigate. This information is shared to help you find the best-fit school for the children in your life. Use it to review academic ratings, school location, contact information, special school offerings, and use QR codes to access even more information online.

Every child deserves their best-fit education to set them on a pathway to future success. This guide will help you explore your options and decide on a public school – whether a Cleveland Metropolitan School District school or a tuition-free charter school. Then contact the school or a Cleveland Transformation Alliance staff member for help applying to your school of choice.

Visit myCLESchool.org for an interactive school finder that can be used in collaboration with this guide. The site allows families to find schools by neighborhood, programs offered, and ratings.

After ten years of implementing The Cleveland Plan for Transforming Schools, there is no doubt that progress has been made. We also know that we have much more work to do to ensure that Cleveland’s students are prepared for whatever is next after high school. If your child is enrolled in their best-fit school, they will be more excited about learning and more likely to persist through to graduation.

It is time to double down on The Cleveland Plan and accelerate our progress because Cleveland’s kids can’t wait.

Sincerely,

The Honorable Justin M. Bibb
Mayor, City of Cleveland | Chair, Cleveland Transformation Alliance

Thank You to Our Sponsors

Thank you to all of our sponsors for helping to create this guide and ensuring that every Cleveland family has the opportunity to access information about the best fit for their child. We are grateful for the support of the Cleveland Foundation, The George Gund Foundation, and the Cuyahoga Community College Foundation, as well as our many other partners who have made this guide possible.

Meet the Smiths

Meet the Smiths! Each family in this section shares their story of how they found their best fit school and how the Cleveland Transformation Alliance made a difference in their child’s educational journey.

Timeline

The Cleveland Plan for Transforming Schools is a ten-year initiative that began in 2013. This section outlines the key milestones and achievements of the plan.

Say Yes Cleveland

Say Yes Cleveland is a tuition-free charter school that provides opportunities for students to complete a college education at no cost. This section features information about the school and how to apply.

Say Yes Scholarships

Say Yes Scholarships are available to help students afford the cost of attending a school of their choice. This section explains the eligibility requirements and application process.

Finding the Right Fit

Finding the Right Fit is a resource for families looking to find the best school for their child. This section offers tips and tools to help families navigate the school selection process.

My Top School Choices

My Top School Choices is a tool for families to create a list of their top school options. This section provides guidance on how to use the tool and what information to consider.

Postsecondary Options

Postsecondary Options is a resource for families looking to explore options beyond high school. This section features information about college and career pathways and how to prepare for the next step.
Whether you know her by “Mikki” or “Gi Gi,” there’s a good chance that community organizer and education consultant Makayna Smith considers you part of her family. Born and raised in Cleveland, she is a mother of four, a grandmother to fourteen, and a longtime True2U mentor for eighth graders in the Cleveland Metropolitan School District (CMSD).

Each of these roles is part of Smith’s commitment to creating the village she feels all children need to reach their full potential. “We have moved away from having parents, children, and grandchildren in a home together,” says Smith, “but we are supposed to have that intergenerational knowledge and take care of each other — as parents, grandparents, and neighbors.”

Smith’s youngest son Marcellous is a Frederick Douglass high school student, and her local grandchildren attend Scranton, Paul Dunbar, Orchard STEM, and Garrett Morgan schools. As a grandparent who spends much time in Cleveland schools, she encourages other grandparents to be as active as possible in their grandchildren’s education and extracurricular activities while giving children a voice in decision-making.

Smith believes children learn best when they have choices, and she hopes to see public education continue moving away from the emphasis on standardized tests toward a more holistic, student-centered model. She loves to see students thrive in schools where they feel comfortable, “where parents and students have a good rapport with teachers, family engagement is encouraged, and staff is invested in the community.”

This student-centered approach is one of Smith’s favorite parts of volunteering with the True2U mentoring program. Through the program, CMSD eighth graders work with mentors who help them explore their strengths and interests while building skills that will help them become successful in high school. “I love what they amplify when it comes to preparing youth for high school. Kids learn about themselves, finding out their skills and passions, something many adults haven’t figured out yet. Every month, I get an opportunity to pour love into kids and help them make decisions that will help them become the best versions of themselves.”

Smith has big dreams for all the kids she considers part of her extended family. She imagines a day when “every child will receive the specialized education that they desire and have access to the extracurricular activities — chess, dance, sports, whatever they love — to help them propel into the next phase of their life.” She is excited about the potential of district-wide initiatives, such as College Now Greater Cleveland, Say Yes Cleveland, and the PACE (Planning and Career Exploration) Program - provide this kind of support for high school and beyond.

FALL 2011
Cleveland Mayor Frank G. Jackson convenes a coalition of education, nonprofit, philanthropic, and business leaders to forge a dramatically different path for Cleveland schools.

SPRING 2012
The coalition sends Cleveland’s Plan for Transforming Schools to Ohio’s governor and lawmakers.

JULY 2012
State legislators pass the bipartisan House Bill 525 to implement the Cleveland Plan. Governor Kasich signs the bill into law, enabling reform work to begin.

NOVEMBER 2012
Voters approve a 15-mill school levy, the first operating levy passed in 16 years and the largest in the city’s history. For the first time, a share of operating levy money is set aside for high-performing charter schools formally partnered with or sponsored by the CMSD.

DECEMBER 2012
The Cleveland Transformation Alliance, a new nonprofit tasked with overseeing reform efforts, begins operations.

MAY 2013
The Cleveland Teachers Union votes on a new contract that formalizes changes in state law and provides additional flexibility at the school level. Key elements include changing the teacher compensation system, reducing the weight of seniority in layoff decisions, and providing schools with more say in hiring, and the length of the school day.

SPRING 2014
The Alliance launches its website and releases its comprehensive guide on school quality for all Cleveland public schools, both district and charter.

Pre4CLE launches with a goal of ensuring all 3- and 4-year-old children in Cleveland have access to a high-quality preschool by: Increasing the number of high-quality preschools in Cleveland; Helping preschool providers improve their quality rating; Connecting families to quality preschool programs.

AUGUST 2014
CMSD begins to leverage its new structure, work rules, and other systemic changes made possible by the Cleveland Plan.

NOVEMBER 2014
Voters pass a capital bond to support the CMSD’s Facilities Master Plan.

JUNE 2015
The Alliance releases its first report to the community on the implementation and impact of the Cleveland Plan.

FALL 2015
Building on the Higher Education Compact’s efforts to improve college readiness, access, and persistence rates for CMSD students, the local community begins to explore Say Yes to Education as a potential partner in reform efforts.

The Ohio legislature overwhelmingly passed House Bill 2, which significantly strengthens the accountability structures that govern Ohio’s charter sector without compromising the school level autonomy that is critical to the charter school model.

FALL 2016
Voters approve Issue 108, a renewal of the 15-mill operating levy first passed in 2012.

JANUARY 2019
Cleveland officially becomes the fourth Say Yes to Education chapter in the nation, announcing nearly $82 million in gifts raised out of a total campaign of $125 million, which will fund post-secondary scholarships for Cleveland residents who graduate from CMSD or partnering charter high schools for the next 25 years.

SPRING 2019
CMSD, at the urging of the Bond Accountability Commission, begins a review of its Master Facilities Plan with long-term planning meetings for its K-8 schools. Factors considered include building age and use, program strength, and population trends across the city. Charter schools are part of that review.

FALL 2020
The Ohio Department of Education releases data on CMSD’s graduation rate for the Class of 2019, showing a 27.9 percentage point increase in ten years.

Cleveland Transformation Alliance convenes conversations to update The Cleveland Plan to reflect successes, our continued work, and lessons learned during the pandemic. The CTA Board votes to support the update in September 2021. A month later, the Board also approves its first-ever strategic plan.

In January 2019, Say Yes Cleveland was launched, creating a game-changing opportunity for generations of Clevelanders. For the next 25 years, Say Yes Cleveland will provide two big things for students in CMSD and partnering charter schools: support services in school from PreK through high school graduation, and tuition scholarships after high school.

SUPPORT SERVICES
Say Yes Cleveland provides support services to students from PreK through 12th grade, in 100% of CMSD and partner charter schools as of August 2022. Services include

- After-school & summer programming.
- Legal assistance.
- Mental health services.
- A Family Support Specialist in each school to connect students and their families to needed assistance.

TUITION SCHOLARSHIPS
Say Yes Cleveland provides scholarships to eligible CMSD and partner charter high school graduates toward the cost of tuition at college or postsecondary programs, after federal and state grants.

Say Yes scholarships can be used

- At all public universities, community colleges in Ohio.
- Any Pell-eligible certificate program in Ohio.
- Over 100 private colleges and universities across the country.

WHY SAY YES?
Cleveland’s future belongs to its children. That’s why Say Yes Cleveland is working to unite our community behind a program that provides the children in our public schools with the supports they need to overcome barriers throughout their school years. Then, after high school, it creates wider opportunities for them by providing a tuition scholarship toward a college degree or career training certificate.

SayYesCleveland.org

ARE YOU ELIGIBLE?
To be eligible for a scholarship, a student must:

1. Be continuously enrolled in a CMSD or partner charter high school, from ninth grade through graduation.
2. Live within the CMSD boundaries continuously from ninth grade through graduation—including the city of Cleveland, the villages of Bratenahl, Lindtale, and Newburgh Heights, and parts of Brook Park and Garfield Heights. See map, page 5. Any high school student who experiences homelessness should connect with their school counselor and Project ACT to ensure scholarship eligibility.

Say Yes Cleveland provides scholarships covering the cost of college or postsecondary tuition, after federal and state grants, to every eligible CMSD high school graduate.

What’s Covered?
Say Yes scholarships apply to tuition only. Students may be able to use institutional aid and other non-Say Yes scholarships for non-tuition expenses such as room, board, or books.

The scholarship will address the gap between the total cost of tuition, minus federal and state grants.

AT OHIO PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS & PRIVATE SCHOOLS NATIONWIDE
- Students in families earning earning $75,000 or less per year, will have the full tuition difference paid for up to eight semesters.
- Students in families earning over $75,000 a year will receive up to $5,000 annually, covering up to eight semesters.

Say Yes Cleveland Scholarships are made possible through the generosity of individuals, businesses, foundations, higher education partners, and others in the community.

VISIT SAYYESCLEVELAND.ORG FOR PARTICIPATING COLLEGES.

Must haves

Nice to have
1. PREPARE FOR COLLEGE & CAREER
At College Now, advisors are uniquely trained to match individuals of all ages and levels of experience with the educational pathways to wealth-creating occupations. This is not a ‘one size fits all’ approach. For some the educational pathway might be a four-year degree in accounting; for others, a two-year nursing degree; and still for others, an 18-month welding apprenticeship.
College Now advisors meet students where they are, assess their education and career experience and goals, and match them with the opportunities that are their best fit.

2. COLLEGE & CAREER ACCESS ADVISING
With the help of College Now advisors, students develop a college and career plan by:
• Determining their skills and interests
• Exploring career fields and relevant academic programs
• Navigating the admissions process, and
• Registering for required tests.

3. FINANCIAL AID & STUDENT LOAN COUNSELING
College Now offers advising in schools, in our Resource Center and at community venues on student financial aid, including:
• Learning about financial aid options
• Completing the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid), federal, state, institutional, and private grants, loans, and scholarships
• Evaluating financial aid award packages
The advisors focus on helping students achieve a goal of securing maximum financial aid with minimal loan debt.

Transportation Services

GETTING TO NEIGHBORHOOD ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS—DISTRICT AND CHARTER
Preschool students are eligible for transportation only if they have a disability.
Kindergarten through sixth grade students can take a yellow bus to and from school if they would have more than a one-mile walk. A website and app allow you to track your students bus location using GPS.
Students in seventh and eighth grade are eligible for RTA swipe passes, but can be assigned to a yellow bus if space is available, and/or to keep them with their siblings.

Special situations:
Students with disabilities of all ages are provided with transportation if it’s included in their Individualized Education Program (IEP).
Did you choose an elementary school outside your neighborhood?
Transportation is not guaranteed for students in schools other than their closest neighborhood school, but staff can work with you to identify available routes. Students at schools with unique models, and the single-gender elementary schools may be eligible for yellow bus access. You can call the hotline at 216-838-4BUS all year-round, including through the summer to explore your options.

Do you live outside of Cleveland?
There are some addresses outside the city of Cleveland that fall within the footprint of the CMSD and are eligible for transportation. If you live outside of CMSD’s service area, you must make your own transportation arrangements.

If you’re staying somewhere temporarily:
You may access transportation services by bus, cab, or van through Project ACT.
NAVIGATING CHALLENGES

DID YOU KNOW?
Homelessness goes by many names—staying with family, doubling up, in transition—and deeply affects students’ ability to learn. More than six percent of children in Cleveland experience homelessness in a given year.

STUDENTS IN TEMPORARY LIVING SITUATIONS
Students in temporary living situations face significant barriers to educational success and benefit from the stability that a secure school placement can provide. The McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act is a federal law that grants important educational rights to students in temporary living situations.

A student is protected under McKinney-Vento if they lack a fixed, regular, and adequate nighttime residence. This includes children and youth who are:
- Staying in a shelter, including emergency/transitional shelters, domestic violence shelters, and runaway and homeless youth shelters.
- Disabled-up with a friend, relative or someone else because their family lost their home due to eviction, foreclosure, natural disaster, or economic reasons; or staying in a motel, hotel, trailer park, or campground because they have nowhere else to go.
- Staying in housing that is substandard or lacks full utilities.
- Living in places not ordinarily used for sleeping, including cars, parks, public places, abandoned buildings, or bus or train stations.
- Abandoned in a hospital.
- Unaccompanied youth, not living at home. This includes children and youth who:
  - Were asked to leave home or locked out by a parent/legal guardian,
  - Left home without consent of parents (runaways), or
  - Are living doubled-up without a legal guardian due to economic reasons or lack formal custody papers while their parents may be incarcerated, hospitalized, or in a rehabilitation center.

Know Your Rights
- Students in temporary housing have a right under the McKinney-Vento Act to:
  - Receive a free, appropriate public education.
  - Enroll in school immediately, even if lacking documents normally required for enrollment, or having missed application or enrollment deadlines during any period of homelessness.
  - Attend classes while the school gathers needed documents.
  - Continue attending the school of origin, or enroll in a different school where space is available, at the request of the parent, guardian, or Receive transportation to and from school.
  - Receive educational services comparable to those provided to students in permanent housing.
  - The right to a written explanation if your child is assigned to a school other than the school of your choice, and the right to appeal that decision.

It’s always tough to be the new kid in the middle of the school year: to find new friends, adapt to new teachers and rules. But for more than 6.5 million students nationwide, being the new kid can be a frequent occurrence—and there is a cost to their social and academic development.

What Is Student Mobility?
In K-12 education, “student mobility,” also called “churn” or “transience,” can include any time a student changes schools for reasons other than grade promotion, but in general it refers to students changing schools during a school year.

It may be voluntary—such as a student changing schools to participate in a new program—or involuntary, such as being expelled or escaping from bullying. Student mobility is often related to residential mobility, such as when a family becomes homeless or moves due to changes in a parent’s job.

Changing Schools because of Conflict
You are an expert on your child and their needs. Before moving them to another school, which could impact their achievement long term, try working through the conflict as your child’s advocate. No one knows your child better than you; the school should welcome your presence and efforts to improve their experience and achievement at school.

NAVIGATING CHALLENGES

WHEN CONFLICTS ARISE

Conflict is a normal part of life. When conflicts arise at school, there are things you can do to improve the situation and open up communication.

1. Stay positive. Your words are the most powerful to your child and will shape their expectations. Even if you’re feeling negative toward an adult at the school, try not to let your child know that.

2. Listen carefully. In order to get the facts straight, ask your child open-ended questions, then follow up by asking for specific examples that tell you what you’re dealing with. Make notes about the issue with dates to help you notice patterns. Does your child just need to vent? Sharing with you may help put their feelings into words.

3. Brainstorm solutions together. Your child may have some ideas about what they, the teacher, or you can do to fix the problem. Soliciting your child’s input will show them their thoughts are valued, and forging a plan together may help them be more receptive to possible solutions.

4. Observe the situation. Get as much information as you can about the source of the conflict before scheduling a meeting with staff. Question other parents whose children are or were in the same situation with staff. Question other parents whose children are or were in the same situation as your child with staff. Question other parents whose children are or were in the same situation as your child.

5. Open a dialogue. Ask, “How do you feel my child is doing?” Listen to the staff member’s assessment and suggestions before you express your concerns. Posing questions and avoiding accusations will yield the best results. Bring along a notepad with your notes, and to keep track of what responses you receive.

6. Build the connection. Volunteering time or keeping in regular contact with a teacher by phone, text, or email will help you understand each other and communicate better. When a teacher does make an extra effort with your child, reach out to show your appreciation.

7. If necessary, meet with the next person up the chain of command. If you feel the situation isn’t improving and you aren’t getting an adequate response from the teacher, request a meeting with a school leader. The principal may be able to explain the teacher’s approach and more objectively assess the situation. You can find out from the school’s website who the principal reports to.

8. Give it some time. Some changes take time to show up in a child’s achievement, but monitor your child to see if things are improving, staying the same, or getting worse.

9. Explore your options. Would a different teacher or classroom make a difference? Have you taken the issue to the top of this school and found no relief? Studies have shown that children who switch schools lose out on learning, so try to hold out until the end of the year.

FAMILY SUPPORT

LEARNING HOW TO SUPPORT YOUR CHILD

Parents can request a special education evaluation anytime by reaching out to their child’s teacher or principal. Legal Aid recommends doing this in writing or by email, with a date on your request. Keep a copy for yourself. A school must respond in writing to that request within 30 days. While an evaluation happens, schools may provide interventions to help students overcome challenges and ensure learning continues.

Evaluations should be provided in a student’s native language, and all public schools (both CMSD and charter schools) are required to provide special education services. Private schools do not have the same requirement.

Thanks to the support of Legal Aid, Eliot is now enrolled in a new Cleveland public school with a specialized IEP to help him reach his full potential in the fifth grade.

EXPLANATION OF TERMS

- Interventions - Strategies and teaching methods used to help all students learn.
- Evaluation - A series of tests and assessments completed by a team of qualified professionals. After testing the student and talking with parents and teachers, the team meets with the parent/caregiver to discuss areas of concern and decide if the child qualifies for special education and under what category.
- Evaluation Team Report (ETR) - A written summary of information collected during the special education evaluation, outlining if a child has a disability and the child’s educational needs, including special education and related services that could be needed to help the child succeed in school.
- Individualized Education Program (IEP) - A plan for specially designed instruction, with measurable goals and objectives, to meet the needs identified in your child’s Evaluation Team Report.

Find a high-quality preschool for your 3- or 4-year-old today!

WHY QUALITY MATTERS

Research shows that children who participate in high-quality early childhood programs are more likely to have better-developed language and social skills when they get to kindergarten, reach high school graduation, and pursue college or vocational training programs and have good careers as adults. School readiness starts well before children enter the door to kindergarten.

WHAT IS HIGH-QUALITY PRESCHOOL?

High-quality preschools have earned a 3-, 4-, or 5-star rating on Ohio’s Step Up To Quality rating system. Every PRE4CLE preschool is made up of six high-quality elements:

1. Environments that are fun, welcoming, safe, and caring
2. Staff and Teachers who are well-trained and professional
3. Research-based Curriculum with lesson plans for each day’s activities
4. Educational Activities to prepare your child for kindergarten
5. Creative and Imaginative Play to inspire a lifelong love of learning
6. Feedback about your child’s learning and progress

Enroll today! Scholarships are available!

STUDENTS & FAMILIES FIRST

The Cleveland Metropolitan School District strives to provide exemplary customer service that puts the needs of students and families first.

Since 2014, the District has followed the Communicate with H.E.A.R.T customer-service model developed by the Cleveland Clinic and used with the Clinic’s permission. The model calls for CMSD educators to approach family issues and concerns by listening and showing empathy and gratitude.

“The voices of parents and caregivers matter to us,” said Shirrell Greene-Joe, director of the Customer Experience Department. “We are all partners in education.”

Families that have concerns or issues with a school or department should first try to resolve those situations at the school or department level.

If those attempts are unsuccessful, families may contact the Ombuds Office, managed by Tammy Toney. The Ombuds Office will help families navigate resources and connect with a department or program that can assist with their specific needs.

“Our office is a space where a family can go and talk to us about concerns,” Toney said. “We listen, we inform, and we serve as a resource.”

The Ombuds Office is part of the Customer Experience Department, which is based in the CMSD Welcome Center, 1111 Superior Ave., Cleveland 44114.

The Welcome Center also provides access to assistance and services for preschool, Project ACT, School Choice and Enrollment and Special Education enrollment.

The Welcome Center is open from 8 am - 5 pm Monday through Friday. Customers may walk in or schedule an in-person appointment. For scheduling, call the Customer Care line at 216-838-0000 (for Spanish, call 216.838.0001) from 7 am - 5 pm or click on this link.

To reach the Ombuds Office directly, call 216-838-0347 or 216-838-0348. Leave a message 24 hours a day, seven days a week at 216-838-0090.

The Customer Experience Department welcomes feedback. Take a customer satisfaction survey by using the QR Code.

PRE4CLE is a collective impact initiative working to expand access to all 3- and 4-year-olds in Cleveland so that every child enters kindergarten ready to succeed.

Developed in 2013 to fulfill a core goal of Cleveland’s Plan for Transforming Schools, PRE4CLE staff work with partner organizations across the city to prioritize high-quality preschool for Cleveland’s youngest learners by:

- Connecting families to high-quality public and private preschool programs;
- Connecting preschool providers to tools, resources, and key partners to increase their quality and serve more children; and
- Providing strategic leadership and advocacy to accelerate the ability of high-quality preschool in Cleveland.

LEARN MORE AT PRE4CLE.ORG.
All Cleveland public education students have a high-quality, equitable education in schools that inspire joy in learning.

There is educational equity: Every student gets the services, resources, connections, and learning opportunities they need to realize their full potential, regardless of who they are or where they live. Educational equity must be intentionally co-created and continually revisited by members of the larger Cleveland community, including students, families, teachers, and school staff.

1. Grow the number of students attending high-quality public district and public charter schools in every neighborhood in Cleveland
2. Ensure all school leaders are empowered with the resources, supports, and authority necessary to equitably meet the needs of their school community
3. Invest and phase in innovative programs and equitable best practices across all public district and public charter schools to help all students thrive from birth through college and career
4. Through the Cleveland Transformation Alliance, ensure fidelity to and equitable community engagement with this plan for all public district and public charter schools in the city
5. Embed organizational and educational equity principles and activities that are replicable and measurable for all public district and public charter schools in the city

The Cleveland Transformation Alliance, created through The Cleveland Plan, is a trusted community partner working to ensure every student is engaged in a high-quality, equitable education. The CTA gives families and students the information they need to commit to their best-fit public school.

The work of the Alliance is collaborative. Our board represents the broad coalition that supported the Cleveland Plan through legislation, and implementation. Our community has much to be proud of but there is more work to do to ensure Cleveland is a thriving community where every child is flourishing in their best-fit school.

The Cleveland Metropolitan School District is the second largest school district in the State of Ohio. The district is 82 square miles and includes Cleveland, Bratenahl, Lindlade, Newburgh Heights, and parts of Brook Park and Garfield Heights.

This School Quality Guide is organized by neighborhood. Some neighborhood borders are open to interpretation, and we have tried to take that into account. A rough idea of the neighborhood lines we considered is reflected in this map.

Work with a CTA Navigator

*ICON KEY

Navigator: A CTA navigator creates a flexible approach that helps build partnerships among families, schools, and communities to increase student academic success. A navigator is a person who will listen, make connections, collaborate, inform, and help bridge communication and understanding, to help families make informed school choice decisions. Their primary responsibility is to assist families in navigating school options and guide families in deciding which school best meets their children’s needs and interests.

School Choice Options: The School Choice Options report provides readers with an understanding of the number of students who are partaking in enrollment options other than their own district of residence. The data does not reflect the quantity or quality of options within each category.

Attendance Rate: The student attendance rate reports the aggregate percent of time the enrolled students in a school or district are in attendance over the course of a school year. This data point is reported on the school and district report cards for informational purposes only and does not directly factor into the component ratings.

Achievement

The Achievement Component measures students’ academic achievement using each level of performance on Ohio’s State Tests. This component represents whether student performance on state tests met established thresholds and how well students performed on tests overall. By scanning this QR code with your mobile device, you can learn more about the Performance Index and Performance Indicators and how to use the data.

Progress

The Progress component looks closely at students’ growth based on their past performances. This component measures the academic performance of students by looking at the current achievement compared to prior achievement results on Ohio’s State Tests. In Ohio, two numbers – growth index and effect size – are used to assign the component rating. By scanning this QR code with your mobile device, you can learn more about the Overall Value-Added Progress Measure, Growth Index, and Effect size and how to use the data.

Third Grade Reading Proficiency

The Proficiency in Third Grade Reading measure reports how many students score proficient or higher on the reading segment of Ohio’s State Test for English Language Arts for grade 3. It is important to note that this score is separate from reaching proficiency overall on the Third Grade English Language Arts test. By scanning this QR code with your mobile device, you can learn more about the measures and how to use the data.

Graduation

The Graduation Component is a measure of the four-year adjusted cohort graduation rate which applies to students in the class of 2021 who graduated within four years. These are the students who entered ninth grade in the fall of 2017 and graduated by the summer of 2021, and the five-year adjusted cohort graduation rate which applies to students in the class of 2020 who graduated within five years. These are the students who entered ninth grade in the fall of 2016 and graduated by the summer of 2021.

College, Career, Workforce and Military Readiness: NOT RATED AT THIS TIME

Measures: This component is made up of 14 separate measures that are used to estimate how prepared the graduating class from a district or building is to go on to postsecondary education, enter the workforce or join the armed forces.

Cleveland Family Cafes

Cleveland Family Cafes are events created to connect families with families. It is a series of topics guided by peer-to-peer discussions on shared personal family and school experiences. This family-led forum is dedicated to sharing ideas, knowledge, resources, and best practices.

These events aim to create a safe place for families and community members to share feelings, develop connections, ask questions, gain knowledge, and guide the resources and tools we use to provide families with the information needed to make informed school choice decisions.
